

NOTICE

The National Investment Fund wishes to notify members of the public that due to a miscommunication with our advertising agency, the investment notice announced in the newspapers on Monday January 8th, 2024 was published in error.

Subject to regulatory approval, our proposed launch date has been adjusted to later in January 2024.

Further details related to the bond will be released in due course. We look forward to welcoming all potential investors at that time.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused.
